Utilisation of Naval Forces during Strike of Port and Dock Workers

1368. SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE:
SHRI NILOTPAL BASU:

Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state;

(a) whether the Naval Forces were utilised during the strike of port and dock workers in January, 2000;

(b) the details of the total Naval personnel deployed in each port during the strike;

(c) whether the Minister has received a communication from Central Trade Unions opposing the use of such personnel; and

(d) the steps taken by Government on these communications?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI GEORGE FERNANDES): (a) to (d) The services of 1025 Naval personnel were utilised for running essential services viz manning of pilot launches, tugs, water barages, port signal stations and mooring boast during the strike of port and dock workers in January, 2000. The details are annexed in the statement. (see below) This was considered necessary as complete stoppage of operations at these port would have adversely affected the supplies of defence related stores to the Services and other essential commodities. A communication was received by Raksha Mantri from various Trade Union bodies requesting non-deployment of Naval personnel. The conciliatory approach adopted by the Government had enabled resolution of the strike amicably.
